Dear Sir,

8 June 2021
Jyaishta 18, 1943(Saka)

Parliamentary Research and Training Institute for Democracies (PRIDE) is a premier institution providing systematic orientation and training in the field of parliamentary practices and procedures for various stakeholders of parliamentary democracy. The PRIDE, as part of its activities has been organizing Orientation Programmes, Seminars, Lectures, Workshops, etc. for Members of Parliament/Legislators. PRIDE also organizes Orientation Programmes for newly elected Members of State Legislatures in the country. Besides, Study Visits, Appreciation Courses and Training Programmes are also organized for stakeholders such as officials of Government, officials of State Legislatures, Members of foreign Parliaments, foreign parliamentary officials, etc.

On the initiative of Hon'ble Speaker, Lok Sabha, PRIDE, Lok Sabha Secretariat, is observing the "World Day Against Child Labour" on the 12th June 2021 by organising a Panel Discussion on subjects (i) Child Labour: An Enigma for the Society and (ii) Child Labour: Challenges and Opportunities to overcome the Problem. The Members of Parliament, Members of State Legislatures, officials of State Legislatures, Officials of Ministry of Labour and Ministry of Women and Child Welfare will attend programme online.

I would be grateful if you could kindly address preferably on "Child Labour: An Enigma for the Society" during the above Panel Discussion on the subject on Saturday, 12th June 2021 to be conducted from 10:30 A.M. to 11:45 A.M. The names of other resource persons who will address the Members and other participants during the Panel Discussion will be informed after receiving confirmation from them. Since the programme is being organized online, you can deliver the lecture at your place of stay. Alternatively, and if convenient, you could also address the participants from Committee Room 1, Extension to Parliament House Annexe, Parliament Complex, New Delhi. The link to connect to the programme will be provided in due course.

We are confident that your address during the Panel Discussion will go a long way in making our Parliamentarians, Members of State Legislatures, officials and other stakeholders gain a proper perspective on the subject.

A line in confirmation will be highly appreciated.

With best wishes

Yours sincerely

(PRASENJIT SINGH)
